LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT!

Well, here we are at the end of Red Carpet Theatre's season and the classic story of It's a Wonderful Life. This time however It's a Wonderful Life is presented here in the form of a radio play at radio station WRCT.

It's a Wonderful Life—A Live Radio Play is directed by first-time director Stephanie Walker. Stephanie is not new to the Red Carpet Theatre stage, having acted in many RCCT plays, and most recently was a stand-out in this past summer's musical Godspell with her vocal of the hit song "Day by Day."

It's a Wonderful Life has become a Christmas Classic telling the story of George Bailey and what life would have been like if he had never been born and how he touched so many lives (how we all touch and influence those in our lifetimes). All of the characters and story-line are here, but it's presented in the form of a radio play. It will be the perfect addition to the Christmas season this year.

I must thank all of you, our patrons and ticket holders for your support this year of all of Red Carpet Theatre's shows beginning with Disney's High School Musical, The Importance of Being Earnest, Godspell, and our current production It's A Wonderful Life—A Live Radio Play.

It's truly been a great year with four great shows, wonderful directors, and some of the most talented local actors we've ever seen on our stage.

Planning is already underway for another winning season next year for Red Carpet Community Theatre.

Red Carpet Theatre's remodeling of our building is still underway, under the direction of Paul Currell. Paul and his crew have done a brilliant job giving the old building a fresh new look and he is still hard at work putting some finishing touches on our theatre. Thanks Paul!

GET YOUR TICKETS NOW FOR HOLIDAY FAVORITE

Red Carpet Community Theatre is currently in rehearsal for its holiday show, It's a Wonderful Life – A Live Radio Play. Directed by local Stephanie Walker, production dates December 5 - 11, 2011.

Join Red Carpet with a faux broadcast using live actors. Our theatre guests will become the studio audience as they reconnect with this classic story of love and redemption. Meanwhile, the actors interpret the script, sell the products of the sponsors and produce the sound effects that bring the tale briskly to life. When the "On The Air" sign brightens in our "studio," all of us will be able not only to reflect on the message of that tale, but also to shed tears of joy as the angel enables our journey of discovery.

Local artists are: The part of "George Bailey" will be played by Jon Butler (Mobeetie, TX), "Clarence" will be portrayed by Josh McSpadden (Weatherford), Elizabeth Perkinson (Elk City) as his sweet wife "Mary Hatch Bailey", and the rest of the cast includes: Christy Dowdy, Susan Fuchs, Gene Fuchs, Sebastian Schmitz, Tom Pixton, Bri'elle Cocheran, Lia Kaye Spears, Parker Broadbent, Taeya McArthur (Elk City), Jordyn Hoffman (Longdale) and Francie and Kelly Bauldrige (Sayre).

The production will open December 5, with shows nightly at 7:30, closing with a Sunday 2:30 matinee December 11, 2011. This project is done with the grant assistance of the Oklahoma Arts Council and the National Endowment for the Arts. JUNIOR ACTORS GUILD PRESENTED "AND"

Young actors from Elk City and surrounding areas came together over fall break weekend to participate in Red Carpet Community Theatre's Junior Actor's Guild (JAG) Theatre Boot Camp, an intensive theatrical training workshop designed to refine and hone their characterization and performance skills towards the production of And on Saturday, October 22, at 2:30 pm.

The workshop, directed by guest director Sharon Burum of Duncan, culminated in a production developed during rehearsals over the three-day camp. Students performed from the play, And, by Alan Haehnel, which highlights the billions of stories that are happening at the same time in the lives of teens. The teens also enjoyed an evening of murder with the show "Some Enchanted Murder" presented by "Use Your Outside Voice."
